Walking through the U.S A.
There are regions we should say
Starting from the East to the West
Looking at landforms is the best

In the Northeast, there's a lot to boast
Appalachian Trail and Atlantic coast
Lobsters, oysters, yummy food!
Harbors for imports, exports too

Headed to the Southeast no time to stop
Mississippi River is at the top
Gulf of Mexico is at the end
The Midwest is around the bend

Now let's look at the Midwest!
Great Lakes, Great Plains no time to rest
Farm lands feed the U.S.A.
Corn, wheat, oats, and lots of hay

The South West is the next in line
Rockies stand there proud and fine
Grand Canyon is next you'll see
Eroded over time, it's a mile deep

Now we're headed further West,
Pacific Ocean is our quest
Before you arrive, you cross Death Valley
Sierra Nevadas are a sight to see

Now we're in our final place
We crossed 5 regions of the United States
