
Title of Position	Editorial Director, Spanish Reading/Language Arts (Instruction)
Description	You will be closely involved in conceptualizing and developing a new Spanish K2 Foundational Skills-focused program. We are looking for someone with deep knowledge of the dual language and bilingual education space who will provide strong editorial leadership and a creative vision. The ideal candidate is a life-long learner who is collaborative, proactive, highly organized, and passionate about delivering high-quality instruction that will create successful readers and writers.
Qualifications	7+ years managing the development of K-5 reading/language arts products-both student and teacher facing components; Deep experience in supporting the development of foundational reading skills in emergent bilingual learners. Experience conceptualizing Reading products at K-2, particularly teacher materials; Proven project management skills, attention to detail, and an ability to drive toward completion Experience planning, scheduling, budgeting, and supervising staff and/or vendors; A very hands-on approach; a willingness to contribute in detail to execution in order to ensure that our products meet the highest standards of quality and editorial excellence; Excellent writing and editing skills in Spanish and English Ability to make informed and decisive decisions that will ensure successful execution of projects Experience creating clear and detailed documentation that explains key processes and approaches; Familiarity with national and state standards and assessments, including quantitative and qualitative text measures; Ability to proactively and creatively solve problems related to product development; Proven project management skills, attention to detail, and an ability to drive toward completion Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree in education or teaching experience a plus.

District/Organization	Curriculum Associates
Contact Name	Keisha Jordan
Email	kjordan@cainc.com
Phone	(800) 225-0248
More Information Available at url:	https://app.jobvite.com/j?cj=ouv6kfw9&s=DLENM
Applications due by:	Mar 01, 2023 10:00 AM
